UNNING FIGHT WITH OUTLAWS, Oklahoma Officers Give Zip Wyatt's Gang

a Lively Chase. HENNESSEY, O. T., June 27 .- A posse of deputy sheriffs from Woodward, O. T., who have been hunting Zip Wyatt and gang for the past week, came suddenly upon four of the gang, 60 miles west of Hennessey, while they were pre- COVER THE COURSE IN 10:28. paring supper. The officers were as badly surprised as the outlaws, and after firing a few shots, retreated to a safeposition. The outlaws took advantage of the delay and quickly mounted their horses and attempted to escape. The officers, after a short delay, started in pursuit. Shots were exchanged as rapidly as their guns could be loaded, and during the fight Charley Black, brother of Tulsa Jack, who was killed in the Cimmarron fight eight weeks ago, was seriously wounded in the hip. Three of the outlaws' horses were killed and one of the officers was slightly wounded. The wounded outlaw was tied to his horse and the retreat continued to Waters' ranch, where they obtained fresh torses. In the darkness the outlaws made their escape, and the officers gave up the pursuit. The bandits continner east and crossed the Rock Island railway one mile south of Hennessey.
